A short Account of all the most considerable News,
Foreign and Domestic.

Edinburgh, Monday August 19, 1723.

Edinburgh, August 19th, 10 o' Clock in the Forenoon.

The Mail which uses to come from London on Saturday's Night, is not yet arrived. We are told, the Reason of this is, That the two Mails from London and Edinburgh, happening to be both together at some Stage on the Road, the Post-boys mistook the one Mail for the other, so that he who ought to have forwarded the Mail from Edinburgh to London, took back the Mail which had come from thence: And till it is overtaken and brought back, we cannot expect fresh News from London or Places abroad.

From the Flying Post, August 10.

TH E Y write from Madrid, That the Assassines who murdered M Ham, Secretary of the States General, took the Opportunity of doing it, when he went one Evening into his Stable to see his Horses and Mules, and that then 3 of them threw a Sack over his Head to blind him, that he might not see the Fourth, who run him into the Breast with a Poynard, and gave him several Stabs in the right Side, so that tho he called for Help, it was too late; for when the Guards came, the Assassins were all escaped, except the Coach-man, who happened to be taken on the Spot.

Edinburgh, August 14, 1723. To the end that no Person may, either thro' Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertency, omit Complying with, and consequently incur the Penalties inflicted by an Act pass'd last Session of Parliament, Entituled, An Act to oblige all Persons, being Papists, in that Part of Great Britain call'd Scotland; and all Persons in Great Britain, refusing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, by several Acts therein mentioned, to Register their Names and Real Estates: These are to certify all Persons whatsoever, both Men and Women, in Scotland, England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, respectively, being of the Age of Eighteen Years or upwards, and not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned (and hereunto subjoin'd) before the First Day of the last Session of Parliament; That they are obliged to take the said Oaths, within the Time (viz. Those of that Part of Great Britain call'd England, &c. on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-three; and, those of that Part of Great Britain call'd Scotland, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-four) and in some of the Courts prescribed for that Purpose, at their Peril, without any Summons or Notice for their so doing; or, in Default thereof, to Register their Names and Real Estates as they, or any Person or Persons in Trust for them, shall be Seiz'd of, or otherwise interest'd in at the Time when they ought to have made such Register: Which Registration to be respectively made, by those of that Part of Great Britain call'd England, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-four; and by those of that Part of Great Britain call'd Scotland, on or before the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-four.

I. A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King George. So help me GOD.

I. A. B. do from my Heart abhor, detest, and abjure, as Impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Position, that Princes excommunicated, or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their Subjects; or any other Person whatsoever; and I do declare, that no foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State or Potentate, hath or ought to have any Jurisdiction, Power, Superiority, Preheminence, or Authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm. So help me God.

I. A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify and declare, in my Conscience before God and the World, that our Sovereign Lord K. George, is lawful and rightful King of this Realm, and all other his Majesty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging; and I do solemnly and sincerely declare, that I do believe in my Conscience, that the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King James, and since his Decease, pretending to be, and taking upon himself The Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of James III. or of Scotland by the Name of James VIII. or the Stile or Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any the Dominions thereto belonging. And I do renounce, refuse and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do Swear, that I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to his Majesty K. George, and him will defend to the utmost of my Power, against all traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his Person, Crown or Dignity, and I will do my utmost Endeavours to disclose and make known to his Majesty and his Successors, all Treasons and traiterous Conspiracies, which I shall know to be against him or any of them. And I do faithfully promise to the utmost of my Power, to maintain, support and defend the Succession of the Crown, against him the said James, and all other Persons whatsoever; which Succession by an Act entituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subjects, is and stands limited to the Princess Sophia, Electress and Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge, and Swear according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense, and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, or mental Reservation whatsoever; and I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promise, heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.

So help me God.

From the Flying Post,

Paris, August 14. When the Abbot Bancas waited on the King with the Letter from the Archbishop of Aix, declaring the Zeal and Earnestness with which the Clergy in Convocation agreed to give him the Eight Millions of Livres; The King returned the Archbishop the following Answer.

My Lord Archbishop of Aix.

I am perfectly satisfied in the Testimony which the Clergy of my Kingdom, assembled in Convocation, have now given me of their Zeal for my Service: I see by the Conduct of the Deputies, That all the Provinces are animated with the same Spirit, and equally concerned to relieve the Necessities of the State: Nothing was more proper to convince me how much I am concern'd to maintain the Authority of the Bishops, than the Character and Esteem which they have among my People. I know what your Example could have done with the Deputies upon this Occasion, if they had needed it: But without detracting from the Esteem and Confidence which I owe to your Wisdom so often experienced: You will be infinitely pleased when I tell you, that in the present unanimity, I could not perceive any Member that had a Thought he should be more taken Notice of than the rest, because all the Deputies distinguished themselves alike. Assure them how kindly I take it at their Hands, as well as from yours; and that I am heartily dispos'd to give them all the Marks of Protection which they can desire for the Advantage of the Churches of my Kingdom. Therefore I pray God to take you, My Lord Bishop of Aix, into his sacred Protection.

Mean-time all Hands are employed to complete the Fitting out of our Squadron of Men of War, in order to get it out to Sea at an Hour's Warning. Some more Troops are ordered hither, to hasten the new Fortifications of this Capital.

The Russian Fregate which came hither with the Czar's Resident, lies still in our Road, and 'tis presum'd, has paticular Orders to observe the Motions of our Fleet.

Our two Fregats, sent to get Intelligence of the Czar's Fleet, are not yet returned.

Hague, August 7. 'Tis assured, that so high a Duty will be laid upon all Goods imported hither, being the Produce of the Austrian East India Company's Ships, as will make it altogether impossible to vend any of the said Commodities in this Country.
